Dear Iván,

On behalf of the International Section of the Association for Conflict Resolution, we wish to thank you for your invaluable contributions to the success of International Day at the Association for Conflict Resolution's 2014 annual conference in Cincinnati on October 10, 2014. It was an honor to present you with the Association for Conflict Resolution International Section's Outstanding Leadership Award for an organization on behalf of ProDiálogo.

The interest in your work was evident in the excellent feedback we received from the audience about your presentation. It was a pleasure to have you present and to profit from your expertise and insight throughout International Day.

We look forward connecting again with you and keeping up with all the great work you and ProDiálogo accomplish.

Sincerely,

Mary Damianakis
